SNOWDONIA

ROUTE		ACCOMMODATION	NOTES
Day One – Thu 8/7 Solihull To Snowdon 209 miles		Cwellyn Arms Rhyd Ddu, At the foot of Snowdon, Gwynedd, LL54 6TL 01766 890321 snowdoninn@aol.com £40 per person for three nights Already paid – can sort when arrived.	Starting at the National Motorcycle Museum. An easy introduction as we head around Birmingham to the 'Food Stop Café', a popular biker haunt with a cracking breakfast. Next heading into Wales on flowing roads until we turn sharp right onto the famous Irfon Valley pass and then the Devils Staircase, with 25% gradients in places and stunning views. Ice-cream stop in Tregaron at the end of this little stretch. From there the roads get slightly easier to Aberystwyth and a cruise along the beach before heading into Snowdonia and there is nothing but good roads to the campsite to set up camp and dinner at the pub.
Day Two – Fri 9/7 Anglesey Circular Tour 135 Miles		Cwellyn Arms Rhyd Ddu, At the foot of Snowdon, Gwynedd, LL54 6TL 01766 890321 snowdoninn@aol.com £40 per person for three nights	A round trip to Anglesey today, heading to the East firstly passing Beaumaris Pier and Aberlleiniog Castle, then round the coast to scenic views. Next stop Parys Mountain, an abandoned copper mine then via Bull Bay to the South Stack lighthouse. From the café at the lighthouse we head across Four Mile Bridge and around the south of the island, stopping at Cable Bay with views of Anglesey racing circuit. Next we stop at Llanfairpwllgwyngyllgogerychwyrndrobwllllantysiliogogogoch to pick up a souvenir postcard! Back then into Snowdonia via a scenic route past Llanberris and Pen-Y-Pass to the campsite. Firepit challenge for dinner, suggest we plan who is going to cook starter/main/dessert/cheese for a four course firepit extravaganza dinner with a couple of locally bought beers. We need to walk and collect the firewood from the pub which will of course involve a temporary liquid refreshment stop to rebuild our stamina for the walk back. There is a forest trail from the pub to the campsite which is apparently more interesting than the road.
Day Three – Sat 10/7 Snowdonia Circular Tour 131 Miles		Cwellyn Arms Rhyd Ddu, At the foot of Snowdon, Gwynedd, LL54 6TL 01766 890321 snowdoninn@aol.com £40 per person for three nights	It's all about the roads and views today as we tour Snowdonia National Park. Heading West in the morning and circling back to PorthMaddog and Portmeirion we end up on Barmouth Beach for an ice cream. Next stop after more great roads and heading along Lake Bala is Bala itself to stock up on any supplies and fuel. We then go slightly more 'B-Road' along the Afon Conwy valley and doubling back following the train line through Pont-Y-Pant. The mileage may not seem like much today but the stops for photos, pot noodles and cups of tea will easily fill the day. Repeat dinner in the Cwellyn Arms tonight as we celebrate our last night on the trail.
Day Four – Sun 11/7 Snowdon To Solihull 162 Miles		Back home..	First an obligatory bike stop on our way home at the Ponderosa Café at the top of the Horseshoe Pass then shortly after at the Old Stores Motorbike Café at Pontblyddyn for a stonking breakfast before flowing roads towards Solihull. An optional stop close to home at the new Cannock Designer Outlet Village for refreshments and retail therapy if anyone has missed the outdoor shops...
